

MARSHALL REPUBLICAN

VOLUME TWENTY-THREE.

MARSHALL SALINE COUNTY MISSOURI FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1914.

NUMBER 7.

DEATHS

MRS. JOHN H. NICHOLS.

Mrs. John H. Nichols of near Woodson, on the James Wingfield farm died Thursday night, January 29. She ate a hearty supper that evening and laid down to rest and was found dead. Heart trouble was the cause of her death. Mrs. Nichols had not been well since the birth of a child Christmas day. She was about 40 years old and was Laura Presley, daughter of James Presley of Elk Lick.

Mrs. Nichols was a good woman who will be greatly missed by her family and neighbors. She is survived by her husband and seven children. Funeral took place Saturday at noon at Health Creek church and the burial was at the church cemetery.

MRS. SARAH CATHERINE SHORT.

Mrs. Catherine Rogers Short, widow of B. F. Short, passed away Thursday, January 29, at 7:45 a. m. She was 88 years old and had been feeble for some time, but had kept up this winter, and was in her usual health until about a week ago, she had at times suffered from heart trouble and was stricken with a severe attack and grew worse until she died.

The deceased was born in Fannier county, Va., November 13, 1826, was married in 1847 to the late B. F. Short, who died in 1854. She came with her four children to Monticau county at the close of the war and lived there a number of years. In 1874 she moved with her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Wood to Saline and has made it her home since. She has been a member of Mr. Wood's family ever since the death of Mrs. Wood, eighteen years ago.

Three children survive the mother: R. T. Short of Albuquerque, New Mexico; Mrs. Ella Lyon of Denton, Texas, and G. T. Short of Syracuse, N. Y. The son living in New Mexico, arrived Thursday morning, and the one living in Syracuse is arrived Friday morning. One brother, H. C. Rogers lives in California is very feeble and not able to get here. Mrs. S. D. Trumbo, a niece, arrived Thursday.

The funeral service took place at 10 o'clock. Burial at Salt Springs cemetery. Rev. A. R. Faris conducted the service.

Mrs. Roy Hinton.

Mrs. Minta Hinton, wife of Roy Hinton, died Saturday morning, January 24, after a short illness of pneumonia and meningitis. She was taken sick very suddenly the Monday before her death and was dangerously ill from the first.

The funeral took place at Smith's Chapel on Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m., the service was conducted by Rev. Wm. Vardeman, his comforting talk, rendered a solace and help to the bereaved husband, mother and brothers and near relatives, who mourn.

Mrs. Hinton was born May 12, 1839, and was the daughter of John and Nancy Murphey. She was born and reared in Saline county and was married to the surviving husband ten years ago; to this union were born five children, the youngest but three months old.

The deceased united with the Baptist church several years ago and her passing away not only takes from the family a devoted wife and mother, but from the church a faithful Christian.

The pall bearers were Garnett Bradshaw, Lee Land, Ernest Harvey, Robert Bullard, Julius Spears and Preston Shannon.

Mr. Nelson had charge of the funeral.

Besides the husband and five children, her mother, five brothers and two sisters are left to mourn her death.

The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

IN MEMORY.

Maria Jane Henderson, aged 55 years 3 months and 2 days, died of pneumonia at her home four miles northeast of Marshall, January 29, 1914. She leaves a husband, a large family and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was a member of the North St. M. E. church and was a devout christian, whose simple life of sweet sacrifice and unstinted devotion was exemplary of that of him who taught that "Love thy neighbor as thyself" is the crowning glory of this short span of years.

GUTHREY-PUTSCH.

A. M. Guthrey of this city and Miss Katrina Putsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Putsch, Sr., were united in marriage Wednesday, February 4, 1914, at 5 a. m. at the home of the bride, 420 North Allen.

Rev. A. R. Faris, pastor of the M. E. Church South was the officiating divine.

The guests included only the immediate relatives and a few close friends.

The bride's gown was a beautiful and becoming tailor made suit of golden brown with hat and gloves to match.

The living room, where the ceremony was said was prettily enhanced with ferns and cut flowers, while carnations prevailing.

Mr. and Mrs. Guthrey left on an early train for an extended western trip. They will spend a few days in Kansas City, and will also stop at Denver to see Claud Guthrey a nephew of the groom, and will then proceed to California. They will probably remain in the land of sunshine and flowers for some time; when they return from their wedding trip they will be at home of the groom, 543 Eastwood.

The Guthrey-Putsch wedding has been looked forward to with much interest by the friends of the contracting parties, and is considered very auspicious. The bride the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Putsch Sr., is not only attractive and winsome but is charming in character. She is greatly loved by all who know her in the capacity of an efficient trained nurse, she has endeared herself to many of our people, who are extending hearty congratulations. She was born and reared in Saline.

Mr. Guthrey, the son of the late Daniel Guthrey, has also always lived in the county and has been prominently connected with its agricultural and stock raising interests, and is one of Marshall's finest and best citizens. His close friends have regretted the fact that he persistently continued an old bachelor for so many years, but are rejoicing that he has at last realized the error of his way and is now a happy benedict. Immediately after the ceremony a beautiful breakfast luncheon was served.

Those present in addition to the immediate family were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Putsch Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carpenter son, Travis and Charles P. Guthrey.

OREAR-THORP

A very quiet home wedding ceremony was performed at two-thirty Sunday afternoon, February 1, 1914, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thorp, six miles southeast of Marshall, when they gave their daughter, Velma, in marriage to Mr. Cecil Orear of Longwood, thus connecting two of Saline's oldest families. A solo, "I Love You Truly" was rendered by Mr. June Baker during which the bride and groom came into the room. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. C. Bolton of Marshall. The bride wore beautiful brown silk trimmed in shadow lace and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom was dressed in conventional black. After the ceremony an elegant dinner was served. Those present were the brides parents, Rev. Bolton and daughter, Miss Lorine Thorp and Mr. June Baker, cousins of the bride. The newly married couple will be at home to friends at Longwood, Mo.

CLAWSON-BURKE.

John Clawson, of Slater, and Miss Mary Burke, of south of town, were married Monday morning by Judge Mason. After the ceremony Mr. Clawson brought his handsome bride to our office and introduced her. Mr. Clawson is a policeman at Slater so he felt free from arrest and was willing to take chances in "stealing" a bride, the daughter of Thos. Burke. No one blames him very much as she was willing and we know their married life will be a happy one. Mr. Clawson is a former Marshall boy and is a genial thrifty young man with lots of friends, who join in congratulations and best wishes. The bride is a winning and popular young lady who has the traits of a living helpmate. They will go to house-keeping in Slater.

She will be sadly missed from the family fireside, and from the church and community where the memory of her beautiful life and character still lives in the hearts of those she left behind. "None knew her but to love her; none named her but to praise." THE FAMILY.

STILL AFTER BOOTLEGGERS

Deputy Sheriff John Higgins, arrested January 31, Harvey Rucker (col.) for bootlegging. Rucker pled guilty Tuesday and as the result of his misdeeds is lodging at the county jail.

Sheriff Sterling Price re-arrested Palmore Jackson (col.) Saturday on an old charge of "crap" shooting. Jackson was sent out one day last summer to do some work and made his escape. He also is serving time at the county jail.

Mary Booker (col.) was recently arrested by Deputy Higgins for bootlegging and is awaiting the action of the March term of criminal court.

Will Scrutcheff, who was recently arrested by Deputy Higgins for bootlegging has pled guilty and was assessed a fine of 200 days in jail.

Ert Barbee, who was fined 300 days in jail, January 12, for bootlegging was let out January 24th on a 90-day parole.

Henry Rucker (col.) who was arrested two weeks ago by Deputy Higgins, for bootlegging was sentenced to 280 days in jail last week.

Prosecuting Attorney Meschede says that he expects some sensational developments when criminal court meets in March.

It certainly is high time something is done to stop the illegal sale of alcoholic drinks in Saline county and especially in Marshall. On Saturday particularly evidence of "booze" being sold here is not hard to detect.

The action of the Prosecuting Attorney Meschede and Sheriff Price and his deputies in ferreting out the local option law violators is to be highly commended.

KELLOGG-HAYNES

SINGING PARTY.

On Thursday evening, February 12, the Kellogg-Haynes Singing Party will appear at the high school auditorium in the fourth number of the lecture course. This number is in many ways the class of the course. The company consists of two ladies and three gentlemen, who appear in duets, trios, quartets and quintets, presenting a program from the best known grand operas, light operas and other high class musical literature. They are beautifully and elaborately costumed for each presentation. Both as individual artists and in ensemble work they rank with the very best musical talent before the American public today.

The committee has brought them to Marshall at a cost which amounts to two fifths the entire sum to be expended for the whole course of six numbers, and those not having season tickets should secure single admission for this number if they attend no other. It will certainly be a treat for the music lovers of the town. The seats will go on sale at Hunter's drug store Saturday morning, February 7. Admission fifty cents. Reserve your seats early. (tf)

NEW AUTO BURNS.

An automobile belonging to Luther Tucker of the Fairville neighborhood met with a peculiar accident about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Tucker and Robert Haynie had started west and were about a mile and a half from Marshall where they met a buggy in the road. The machine was running at a rapid speed and in turning so suddenly to avoid a collision with the vehicle the machine skidded and went in to a bank at the side of the road. The force of the collision was so great that it broke the gasoline tank and sparks from the self starter ignited the oil immediately consuming the car. The automobile was just recently purchased; it was a Mitchell machine. Some insurance was carried.

SOLD WEBER HOTEL.

J. F. Bauman, who has been the proprietor of the Weber Hotel on West Arrow the past year, has sold his interest in the business to his son-in-law, P. W. Hearn, late of Oklahoma City, Okla., who will continue to do business at the old stand. Mr. Bauman will move sometime in March to his farm west of Higginsville, where he will cultivate the soil the coming year.

IN POLICE COURT.

Information was filed in police court last Saturday, against George Henry, for disturbing the peace. Fred Dickerson was fined $22.65 for alleged intoxication in Judge Bush's municipal court, January 31.

COPELAND-NEUBAUER

MARRIED THURSDAY AT 2:30 P.M.

Married at the Christian parsonage January 29th by Rev. B. T. Wharton R. W. Copeland of Marshall and Alice Neubauer of Miami.

The wedding took place at about 2 o'clock p. m. The bride and groom being accompanied by several relatives who were witnesses of the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Copeland will be at home to their friends in the future on the farm in the Fairville neighborhood, which is to be their new home. May their future be a realization of the bright prospects now surrounding them, and the good wishes of their many friends.

GARNER-WHITLOCK

WEDDING OF SUNDAY, FEB. 1.

Married at the Christian church parsonage by Rev. B. T. Wharton, Chas. W. Garner and Leona Whitlock both of the county near Marshall.

The wedding took place Sunday morning, February 1 at 10 o'clock, and the happy couple immediately drove to their new home on a farm near Norton, where they will be at home to their friends in the future.

May all success and joy be theirs is the wish of many friends.

GANDMOTHER 97 AND MOTHER 75

J. H. Treece, the popular Cretcher merchant and Col. C. M. Pauley, the Sweet Springs auctioneer, were in the county seat Monday on business and called at our office. Mr. Treece says that his grandmother, Mrs. Louise Shackelford, who will be 97 years old June 28, is well, eats regular and makes her own bed. Mr. Treece also said that his mother, Mrs. G. A. Treece, who is 75 years old, is as well as usual.

108 GUESTS IN MONTH.

C. M. Wood, who is the landlord and turkeys at the city calaboose informed us Wednesday that he had given entertainment to 108 "bums" during the month of January. Mr. Wood is getting to be quite popular with the great army of the unwashed. This is a record month for the municipal bastille.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the many friends who sympathized, assisted and comforted us during the illness and death of our dearly beloved wife and mother, Maria Henderson, we extend our heartfelt thanks. May God give all of you such sincere friends in your sad hours.

JOHN J. HENDERSON AND FAMILY.

P. M. FRANKLIN.

Will pay parcel post charges on all cash orders from the country for 50 cents or more, school books excepted. (3-13)
